III. RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

Type of Recruitment Initiative (Menu Selection)		Brief Description of Activity
1	Management-level training regarding methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and prevention of discrimination and harassment	During April of 2024, our SEU participated in harassment prevention training. All hiring managers—Market Manager, Operations Manager, and Hiring Managers—as well as the entire staff were required to complete a series of sessions prepared by the Health & Safety Institute (HSI) entitled, Understanding Harassment and Anti-Harassment – Managers (6 sessions for staff and 9 for managers). The sessions explained what harassment is, provided tips to help understand offenders and targets; offered bystander training; described warning signs, and instructed viewers about how to create a healthy workplace culture. There was additional training for managers about supervisory responsibilities and how to conduct investigations regarding claims of harassment. In order to obtain a certificate of participation, all employees were required to take a quiz following their completion of each session.
2	Management-level training regarding Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion	During April of 2024, this SEU participated in additional Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion training. All hiring managers as well as the entire staff were required to complete the Health & Safety Institute (HSI) on-line course presented in three segments entitled, Isms: Avoiding Isms in the Workplace; Exploring Isms in the Workplace; and Overcoming Isms in the Workplace . These segments defined Isms, explained how they originated, and provided methods to avoid and overcome the behaviors described.

3	Management-level training regarding Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion	During the last two weeks of April 2024, our SEU's Market Manager and HR Business Partner were required to participate in a further facilitated session and presentation conducted by the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion advisory firm, H3C, entitled, Managing through the Lens of Inclusion . This session was designed as a Leadership Lab—a 60-minute session—to briefly discuss the meaning of “managing through the lens of inclusion” and introduce tools, techniques, and methods associated with this topic. Specifically, this session focused on: assessing the culture of the organization/department/team; developing an appreciation of the differences among and between groups so we can value diversity; managing the dynamics of difference to learn to respond appropriately and effectively to the issues that arise in a diverse environment; changing and adopting new policies and practices that support diversity and inclusion; and institutionalizing cultural knowledge so we can drive the changes into the systems of the organization.
4	Management-level training regarding Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion	During the last two weeks of May 2024, our SEU's Market Manager and HR Business Partner were required to participate in a Check-In Discussion—a 90-minute session—related to the Managing through the Lens of Inclusion session attended in April 2024. In the Check-In Discussion, small groups met with a facilitator to delve into the applicability of the DEI-related techniques introduced in the April session to discuss which were tried, which worked well, and where adjustments could be made.
5	Management-level training regarding Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion	During the last half of July 2024, our SEU's Market Manager and HR Business Partner were required to participate in a further facilitated session and presentation conducted by the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion advisory firm, H3C, entitled, Empathetic Leadership . This session was designed as a Leadership Lab—a 60-minute session—to discuss the meaning of “ Empathetic Leadership: Cultivating Trust &amp; Inclusion, ” and introduce tools, techniques, and methods associated with this topic. Specifically, the session focused on equipping leaders with the skills and insights necessary to foster an inclusive and trusting organizational culture. Participants explored the core principles of empathetic leadership and its impact on team dynamics, inclusion, and overall organizational success. By understanding and valuing the perspectives and experiences of others, leaders can build stronger, more cohesive teams and drive positive change.

6	Management-level training regarding Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion	Between August 12 th and August 23 rd , 2024, our SEU's VP/Market Manager and HR Business Partner were required to participate in a Check-In Discussion—a 90-minute session—related to the Empathetic Leadership session attended in July 2024. In the Check-In Discussion, small groups met with a facilitator to delve into the applicability of the DEI-related techniques introduced in the July session to discuss which were tried, which worked well, and where adjustments could be made.
7	Management-level training concerning methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination	On August 14, 2024, our SEU's VP/Market Manager as well as our HR Business Partner participated in a presentation conducted by Cumulus Media Inc.'s Executive Vice President and General Counsel as well as its Vice President, Human Resources entitled, "The FCC's Equal Employment Opportunity Rules: Your Guide to Compliance for Cumulus Market Managers & HR Business Partners." The FCC's EEO recruitment, recordkeeping, and reporting requirements were reexamined and reinforced, after which questions were entertained.
8	Management-level training regarding Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion	During the months of November and December of 2024, this SEU participated in additional Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion training. All hiring managers as well as the entire staff were required to complete the Health & Safety Institute (HSI) on-line course presented in two segments entitled, A Change Can Start With You &amp; What Is In Group and Out Group Membership? These segments defined "In Group" and "Out Group," and how people can be placed in Groups. It also went on to discuss how Inclusivity starts with You and the changes you can make to impact others and make them feel more included.

9	Management-level training regarding Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion	During the first half of December 2024, our SEU's Market Manager and HR Business Partner were required to participate in a further facilitated session and presentation conducted by the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion advisory firm, H3C, entitled, Perpetuating Allyship. This session was designed as a Leadership Lab—a 60-minute session—to discuss the meaning of “Perpetuating Allyship” and introduce tools, techniques, and methods associated with this topic. Specifically, this session focused on: how one becomes an ally; the importance of not practicing performative allyship; the active, consistent, and arduous practice of how persons in a position of privilege and power can unlearn and re-evaluate how to support marginalized individuals; how to understand the needs of others without assuming what they want; how to be more intentional as an ally; and several key do's and don'ts about allyship
10	Management-level training regarding Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion	Between December 16th and 20th, 2024, our SEU's VP/Market Manager and HR Business Partner were required to participate in a Check-In Discussion—a 90-minute session—related to the Perpetuating Allyship session attended in early December 2024. In the Check-In Discussion, small groups met with a facilitator to delve into the applicability of the DEI-related techniques introduced in the early December session to discuss which were tried, which worked well, and where adjustments could be made.
11	Internship Program	Our SEU has an established internship program through which students earn academic credit for their participation. During this reporting period, our SEU hosted seven (7) student interns, two (2) from Belmont University, one (1) from Middle State Tennessee, one (1) from Colorado State, one (1) from McMurry University, one (1) from Florida State University, and one (1) from University of Kentucky. These interns were supervised by our General Sales Manager. During the course of their internships, they assisted with the creation of sales proposals and digital campaigns, shadowed Account Executives to get a sense of their daily responsibilities, input new and revised orders, led special projects, and attended career fairs.

Type of Recruitment Initiative (Menu Selection)		Brief Description of Activity
12	Participate in Job Fair	From April 1, 2024 to April 4, 2024, our SEU participated in a virtual job fair sponsored by the Tennessee Broadcasters Association via the website, www.BroadcastersVirtualJobFair.com . This site was managed by our General Sales Manager, who was available to engage with job seekers who expressed interest in job openings within our SEU.
13	Training Regarding Recruitment	On February 11, 2025, our SEU participated in a virtual seminar sponsored by The Center for Sales Strategy titled, How to Recruit &amp; Select Superstars . This training was attended by our General Sales Manager and Sales Managers.
